

Tornado Strikes Miami Leaving Over 100 Hurt

By ROBERT D. CLARK
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Greater Miami area's first tornado in 10 years struck near bedtime Wednesday night, leaving at least 100 persons injured, some of them seriously.

"You just don't get that kind of damage from a straight wind," said forecaster Paul Moore in analyzing the violent storm.

It was the first twister to hit the southeast Florida coast since the late 1940s when a tornado ripped up property during a hurricane, Moore said.

Scores of bayfront homes were left in wreckage amid tangles of nearly 60 persons, some seriously injured as the storm leapt over a 12-mile path. Hundreds of persons were driven from their homes.

An 11-year-old boy, Frank Vascul, was reported in critical condition with head injuries.

Nearly 60 persons, some seriously hurt, were treated by hospitals, police, and civil defense units mustered on a disaster footing. In all, about 100 were hurt, the Florida Highway Patrol said.

No one was reported killed. Hardest hit was a four-block residential and business area around the 79th Street causeway where police Sgt. Stewart Cooley estimated the loss would run at least to one million dollars if it missed downtown Miami.

U. S. Pope, picked up bleeding on the causeway, said his wife was on the second floor of a five-family dwelling when its roof blew off. His bed was flung into the air.

Don Shoemaker, who lives in the area, said: "I've been through two tornadoes and have never seen anything like this. It looked like a bomb had hit."

Mrs. Nola Cone, 49, scrambled out of wreckage of her car with six patients, shaken but unhurt. "I've seen Oklahoma tornadoes but none like this," she said. "I heard this roaring sound and"

Man Found Guilty of Bank Robbery

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—James T. Gibson, 33, of Jonesboro, was found guilty yesterday of the $2,900 robbery of the First National Bank of Tucker on Feb. 3.

The all-male jury suggested a four-year sentence, but recommended that he be sent to the State Hospital for observation.

Gibson pleaded innocent by reason of insanity and defense attorneys contended he had not received a complete examination in an earlier commitment to the hospital.

Judge Andrew Ponder set sentencing for Monday.

Second Alford Vote Hearing Is Likely

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A federal grand jury yesterday ended its investigation of the Hays-Alford congressional election without returning any indictments, but another inquiry is to start Monday.

Judge J. Smith Henley ordered release of ballot boxes and other materials which had been impounded for jury use after receiving the jury's report the ballot boxes had been subpoenaed by a House Elections Subcommittee which is to begin an inquiry into the election here Monday.

Henley said the jury apparently either found no violation of federal law or was unable to fix responsibility for any violation in the November election in which Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark.) was defeated.

A counsel for the House subcommittee, Sidney Jay, arrived here yesterday to start work in preparation for Monday's inquiry. Hays did not contest the election, but voting irregularities had been alleged in the write-in victory of Alford.

Long Returns to New Orleans Hospital

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A weary but determined Gov. Earl Long was back in Louisiana today, confined to a $22,500-a-day hospital room overlooking the Mississippi River bridge his brother built.

Long, 63, returned Wednesday night from a 10-day stay in a Galveston, Tex., psychopathic clinic. The return trip began as he stated firm intentions of resuming his duties as chief executive of his home state.

The extent to which this will be possible, at least immediately, remains unanswered. Nearly a dozen doctors began checking today the physical condition of the ailing governor, who vows he will seek an unprecedented fourth term in December.

Doctors at the Ochsner Foundation Hospital removed the telephone from the governor's room. They insisted a "no visitors" ban include politicians.

The big questions now: Will Long run again? Will his health permit it? Will he call a special legislative session to resurrect some of his pet bills that failed in the fiscal session?

Long slipped quietly and without comment into the privately owned general hospital after a plane flight from Galveston.

He immediately requested a bowl of peaches and cream. From his fifth-floor corner room he could see the big river bridge by Huey P. Long, the late Louisiana governor and U.S. Senator.

The plane flight home began just 16 minutes after Probate Judge Hugh Gibson of Galveston County had released the governor from the protective custody of the John Sealy Hospital.

His wife had signed commitment papers June 2, three days after six men had been needed to place the governor on a stretcher for a flight to Galveston. Mrs. Long claimed her husband was physically and mentally exhausted.

Wednesday she and Texas attorneys negotiated nearly seven hours before reaching the agreement that led to Gibson's dismissal.

Mrs. Long said the governor had agreed to remain at Ochsner's two weeks or longer, if necessary.

Beck, Others Deny Any Wrongdoing

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Teamsters President Dave Beck and two trucking company officials have denied there was anything wrong in a $300,000 loan made to Beck by the other two, while he headed the Teamsters Union.

Indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury were Beck, 64, Roy Fruehauf, president of the Fruehauf Trailer Co. of Detroit, and Burge Seymour, of New Preston, Conn., president of Associated Transport, Inc., New York.

Fruehauf and Seymour said the loan, since repaid, was made to Beck because he had previously made them loans when they needed them.

The indictment charged them with violation of the Taft-Hartley Act, one section of which prohibits union officers from accepting payments from management officials, and vice versa.

The $200,000 payment was made to Beck in 1954. In Seattle Wednesday Beck had in comment. His attorney, Charles S. Burdell, said that "naturally we'll fight this charge."

Burdell indicated he would seek postponement of the June 24 date on which Beck is expected to make his plea.

Suit Filed Against Arkansas Landowner

MEMPHIS (AP)—A suit demanding that Vance M. Thompson of Memphis, Ark., account for "several million dollars" worth of Arkansas farm holdings was filed in chancery court here yesterday.

The big questions now: Will Long run again? Will his health permit it? Will he call a special legislative session to resurrect some of his pet bills that failed in the fiscal session?

Long slipped quietly and without comment into the privately owned general hospital after a plane flight from Galveston.

Big Four Talks Are Postponed for 24 Hours

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers today postponed their talks for 24 hours at the request of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Gromyko announced shortly before the ministers were scheduled to meet at Gromyko's villa.

The Soviet foreign minister requested the delay during a private luncheon with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd. Lloyd quickly obtained agreement from U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Tarter and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

The postponement will allow Gromyko another day to consult Moscow and study the new Western compromise plan for a stopgap Berlin settlement. It was assumed the Soviet government still had not reached a definite decision.

Moscow radio reported that Soviet and East German leaders met at the Kremlin today to discuss the Big four problem in an atmosphere of "complete mutual understanding and friendship."

Western diplomats had expected to hear this afternoon whether the Soviets were willing at least to negotiate on the basis of the new plan. Gromyko was critical of the plan but had asked for 24 hours to study it before giving a definite reply.

Western spokesmen had made it clear that a rejection of the new formula by Gromyko would mean the end of the six-week-old foreign ministers conference.

Would Make Planes Able to Fight Back

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators set out today to make it as certain as possible that American patrol planes fly with guns loaded and in working order in the future.

Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) joined Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) in a demand that steps be taken to see to it that no American plane again is as defenseless as the converted Navy anti-aircraft plane strafed by Communist MIG fighters over the Sea of Japan.

"Our planes should be fully armed and have their guns ready to fire if they are attacked," Bridges said. "We are going to investigate this situation and see what can be done about making certain that our men can fight back immediately if they are fired on."

$12,000 Robbery Trial Postponed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The trial of John Francis Kinney, 48, of St. Louis, charged in a $12,000 robbery, has been postponed. It had been set for yesterday.

Kinney's attorneys asked the delay and it was passed until September in Pulaski Circuit Court when a new date will be set.

Kinney and Charles Jefferson Hollis, 33, of Collinsville, Ill., are charged with robbing William Bailey Ferguson at his North Little Rock home in December, 1957.

Both fought extradition to Arkansas, but Kinney made a surprise surrender at Little Rock last November and was released on $5,000 bond.

Hollis was arrested by FBI agents recently and jailed at Little Rock on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for robbery.

Support Grows for Changes in Argentina

By ROMAN JIMENEZ
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Support grew today for disident army groups that already have forced the replacement of Argentina's undersecretary of war by a fervid anti-Peronist.

As President Arturo Frondizi's government entered its third day of crisis, heavily armed units manned all military establishments and fortified the War Ministry in Buenos Aires with nine chinaguero posts.

At least two powerful army garrisons in Campo de Mayo, near Buenos Aires, and at Salta, in northern Argentina, were reported supporting the stand of the Cordoba Army Command, which forced Col. Manuel R. Raimundo to resign as undersecretary of war.

Raimundo, felt by his fellow officers to be an ultranationalist, was replaced by Gen. Rosendo Fraga, described as closely linked with the Cordoba group led by Gen. Roberto Grol.

Grol demanded a thorough investigation of a rumored pact between Frondizi and ex-president Juan Peron to assume Frondizi's election last year. The Cordoba faction also is demanding an end to the government's use of troops and its military powers to block or break strikes on the railroads and other key enterprises.

Shoe Factory at Wynn to Employ 400

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An announcement of a new shoe factory at Wynn, employing 400 persons, was made yesterday by the Wynn Industrial Development Corp., through the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

At an election July 14, Cross County voters will decide whether to approve $450,000 to finance the plant. The election will be held under a new constitutional amendment that allows a city or county to lend its credit for industrial development.

Don E. Joyner, president of the Wynn group, said John Addison Footwear, Inc., of Marlboro, Mass., plans to break ground for the plant Aug. 1.

Suit to Ban Road Contract Dismissed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Texas firm's suit to keep the Arkansas Highway Commission from awarding it a contract was dismissed in U.S. District Court yesterday.

Judge J. Smith Henley said the suit amounted to an action against the state and federal courts did not have jurisdiction in such cases.

Olinger Construction Co. of Fort Worth seeks to get out of a $1,329,370.55 road construction contract. Company officials said an error was made in figuring the low bid, and the amount submitted was too low.

Girl 14, Fires Shot at Boy in Warning

MERIDEN, N.H. (AP)—A 14-year-old girl was taken to the hospital attached to the County House of Correction early today after she had admitted, officials said, firing a "warning shot" at a 14-year-old boy. She said he had forced his attentions on her at a woodland swimming hole.

The boy, Loring Spaulding, was buried Wednesday. His body, a bullet through the head, was found Saturday in a forest clearing. He had been missing since June 10.

County Atty. George Zopf dismissed the girl's story. "That's all this is the story she told," he said.

She and the boy went swimming in Newton's Brook, a stream which feeds Carlson's Pond, which was drained during a search for Spaulding.

He forced his attentions on her, "got rough with her," and they had "a real fight." She broke away, went to her home, obtained a rifle and, returning, encountered the boy near the swimming hole.

She told the boy "you better get out of here," but he didn't move and she fired a warning shot. "The boy started to run and she followed."

Coyles Turned Over to Philadelphia

WAREHAM, Mass. (AP)—Desperado John J. Coyle, 24, whose brother, William, 22, was killed by police in Middleboro Wednesday, was turned over today to police of Philadelphia, his home city.

There he will face a charge of murdering a Philadelphia policeman. Coyle waived extradition before Judge L. Francis Callan.

Coyle pleaded guilty in a barely audible voice as the clerk of the court read off a series of complaints charging him with assault with intent to murder two Massachusetts policemen, armed robbery and assault with a dangerous weapon; kidnapping; larceny of an automobile; and with being a fugitive from Pennsylvania justice.

School Case Now in Hands of Judge Beck

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—S. District Judge Axel J. Beck has taken under advisement a suit seeking desegregation of the Dollarway School District at Pine Bluff.

After a hearing yesterday, Beck said he would issue a ruling after attorneys for both sides had submitted briefs to him and he had studied them. This is expected to take about two weeks.

Three Negro students are seeking admission to the Dollarway to have one. Herschel H. Friday Jr. of Little Rock, attorney for the school district, said the district had no plan for integration and was "not going to have one."

He said Negro students were not denied admittance "solely because of race," but were assigned to a Negro school under the 1959 state pupil assignment law.

Robert L. Carter of New York, attorney for the students, said they never were advised about the law and about their right to a hearing. He said the district's school board was obligated to furnish them this information.

The students are Ernestine Dove, James Warfield and Corla Smith.

Proclamation by Faubus Also Held Unconstitutional

By LEON HATCH
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A three-judge federal court struck down Gov. M. M. Faubus' school closing law today and also have cleared the way for reopening Little Rock's public high schools.

The court reminded the Little Rock School Board that it is under a "continuing mandate" to carry out a previously approved plan of integration for its schools.

Faubus overrode a former board and closed the four high schools last September to block the integration plan.

He acted then under a hastily passed law which he sponsored to give him authority to shut schools against court-ordered integration.

The federal court today declared this law unconstitutional and said Faubus' proclamation closing the schools was void.

Today's federal court ruling also invalidated a companion act to the school closing law. This act provided for transfer of public funds from the Little Rock schools to others to which displaced pupils transferred.

The unanimous ruling was handed down by Circuit Judges John B. Sanborn of St. Paul, Minn., and District Judges Axel J. Beck of Elk Point, S.D., and John E. Miller of Fort Smith, Ark.

Faubus said today he might appeal the federal court ruling, but he would have to study the decision first. He said he was not surprised at the ruling.

The governor, at a press conference, said the federal court ruling removed his authority to close the schools but he would not say the decision meant the reopening of the four public high schools in the fall.

He simply said "it will be up to the courts."

Asked about a special legislative session, Faubus said he had no plans for one but "it was always a possibility. Faubus added he would be glad to meet with the Little Rock school board "any time it desires but whether anything profitable could come out of such a meeting would depend on the discussions themselves."

Three segregationists recently were ousted from the school board in a recall election which threw overboard members with moderate views on integration. They were given a vote of confidence. The segregationists had been backed by Faubus in a heated and emotional campaign.

Two men, chosen to replace the segregationists, have indicated they would be willing to accept some racial integration rather than let the public high schools remain closed. A third replacement resigned after only a few days on the board.

At the first meeting of the reorganized school board one member suggested asking Faubus for a conference in the hope of finding a way to reopen the schools. Action on the suggestion was delayed until the federal court acted.

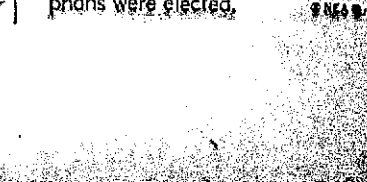

The last legislative session equipped Faubus with new weapons if he wants to continue his fight against what he terms "forcible integration."

Under a 1959 state law still to be tested in the courts, the schools could be closed again, but only by vote of the residents of the school district.

The law says a school district, by popular vote, may abolish its public schools and substitute a system of tuition paid directly to parents of school age.

A proposal to embody this provision in the state constitution will be voted on in the 1960 general election.

Long Issue Gives Pause for Thought

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The high problems of Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana—and his insistence he doesn't belong in an asylum—turn a chilling spotlight on a far bigger but still unanswered question affecting the whole country.

How could a vice president of the United States take over from a president who became too physically or mentally disabled to carry out his duties but could not or would not admit it?

The Constitution isn't clear. The question has never been answered. In fact, Congress throughout American history has begged the question. President Eisenhower has asked Congress to provide an answer. So far it has ducked.

Long's family had him flown out of Louisiana by plane to a mental hospital in Galveston, Tex.—he says he was drugged and kidnapped—and the lieutenant governor took over, signing bills "otherwise acting as governor."

Now Long is fighting to get back inside Louisiana. If he does—even to enter a hospital—and then asserts himself as governor, who is governor? Long or the lieutenant governor? Under Louisiana law, the lieutenant governor can act only when the governor is outside the state.

But suppose a president became deranged—perhaps only slightly—but could not or would not admit it. How then could the vice president take over? Even when the president is out of the country he still is the president, and no one is authorized to step into his place.

No legal, fool-proof way has been produced yet to shove a president aside, no matter what the circumstances.

This is all the Constitution says:

"In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice president (but the Constitution doesn't say how or who decides on presidential disability) and the Congress may by law provide for the removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed (the Constitution doesn't say who decides this), if a president shall be elected."

So, although the Constitution clearly says Congress can lay down the method for getting a disabled president out of the White House, Congress has never done so.

The idea that Congress by a simple law could give the answer has been challenged, and on pretty good grounds: that if a vice president succeeded the president by simple act, Congress, it could be protested as unconstitutional and taken to the courts where it might face a long fight.

Two Charged With Rape of Negro Girl

MALVERN, Ark. (AP)—Prosecuting Atty. Lawson E. Glover said today two white men would be charged with rape in connection with the alleged assault of a 21-year-old Negro girl Saturday.

Glover, in a prepared statement read to newsmen here, said Ben Sanders, 26, of near Ferriday in Pulaski County, and Bobby Burnett, 21, of Little Rock had admitted the attack. Glover's statement said rape charges would be filed this afternoon in Benton county seat of Saline County where the offense allegedly occurred.

Glover said the two men picked up the girl at her home in Little Rock Saturday afternoon on the pretense of babysitting for Burnett, who has been married two years but has no children. He said the men drove in Burnett's car to a side road just off Highway 12 in Saline County, about five miles south of the Pulaski County line. The men allegedly raped the girl and then released her, Glover said.

The girl told authorities she then caught a ride to Little Rock and notified the Pulaski County sheriff's office.

Glover said Sanders had been a patient at State Hospital three or four years ago. He said he would ask sanity tests for both men.

The girl told authorities she did not know the men, and Glover did not say what led to their arrests.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A three-judge federal court today voided a state law under which Gov. Orval E. Faubus closed Little Rock public high schools last fall against integration.

The court added the governor's proclamation shutting down the four schools was void.

The Arkansas Supreme Court, in a 4-3 decision, recently upheld the disputed act but the three federal judges called it unconstitutional.

In the same ruling, the federal judges held invalid a companion state law which diverted public funds from the closed schools to others to which displaced pupils transferred.

The second act, the court said, was a device for depriving the Little Rock School District of funds to which it properly was entitled.

U. S. Circuit Judge John B. Sanborn of St. Paul and District Judges Axle J. Beck of Elk Point, S. D., and John E. Miller of Fort Smith, Ark., held a hearing on the case here May 4.

Today's ruling was unanimous. An appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court is considered certain.

DOROTHY DIX

Will Husband Accelerate as Wife Applies Brakes?

Dear Dorothy Dix: Your recent advice to a working wife just settled the question for someone I know. For some time she has noticed that her double-duty job of business and housework plus children, has made her husband a very contented, lazy man. He has a job, all right, but no incentive to better it. My friend quit her job and is trying to bring back his ambition. It isn't completely lost already. I often mention my own experience in this matter. My earnings furnished all the extras and I had the most "satisfied" husband in the world. Of course, he always said he wanted a home and family. But when I did become pregnant after three years' his only comment was, "How are you going to manage?" It was a shock working for many years. Now my children are grown, I live by myself with none of the things I worked for—love, attention, care in my life. I've lost my own self. My present attitude is: "I'm not going to give up very sensible one for my elders."—W.W.W.

Dear W.W.W.: A checkbook is an older girl's best friend. Partly may fall you, but a dollar in the bank is good any time. This is a harsh attitude, but I guess course, he always said he wanted a home and family. But when I did become pregnant after three years' his only comment was, "How are you going to manage?" It was a shock working for many years. Now my children are grown, I live by myself with none of the things I worked for—love, attention, care in my life. I've lost my own self. My present attitude is: "I'm not going to give up very sensible one for my elders."—W.W.W.

One Recalled in Ahead School Vote

CLINTON, Ark. (AP)—One school board member was recalled but three others retained their positions in a special election in Clinton, Ark.

Bald Emerson was recalled 62-28. Glen Emerson retained his seat by the same vote.

Perl Homer was retained 83-17 and Ulysses Watson kept his seat by a 61-39 vote.

Recall petitions against Bald Emerson listed no charges. Full terms for most of the three who kept their seats accused them of failure to co-operate with the state Department of Education and mismanagement of teaching and firing.

The election was the fifth held under a 1958 recall law. In others, voters at 16x16, Clyde Dend and Blumbeck retained all board members under the Act. All three had three re-elections were ousted their seats.

TELEPHONE TALK

By Vance Smiley, Wire Chief, Hope, Ark.

Our 300,000th Telephone

The recent installation of our 300,000th telephone in Arkansas marked an important milestone in the state's telephone history. The event, which took place at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pruitt, was observed with appropriate ceremonies.

On hand for the occasion, among others, were Arkansas Public Service Commissioner John R. Thompson and telephone company Vice President and General Manager Warren E. Bray.

The Pruitts and their three children, Judy, 18; Larry, 14; and Jimmy, 7, are White County residents. They farm 960 acres five miles north of Beebe.

The installation of our 100,000th telephone took place as recently as 1943. That means that in the past 16 years, we've installed twice as many telephones as in the first 63 years of the telephone's history here in Arkansas.

Rural Service Improved

Arkansas's tremendous telephone growth has been especially noteworthy in the rural areas.

Just after World War II, we had only 6,300 telephones in the rural areas of Arkansas. By the end of 1958, the number had increased seven times, to 42,750.

During the past five years, we've spent several million dollars to improve and expand rural telephone service over the state. The quality of service to our rural customers has been greatly improved, and today farm folks like the Pruitts have dial service and can talk and hear as well on their phones as city dwellers.

Rural projects are a part of our over-all construction program, which has totaled $65 million in the past five years. During the next five years we must spend $5 to $6 million dollars for continued expansions and improvements if we expect to keep pace with Arkansas's ever increasing communications needs.

A Good Product

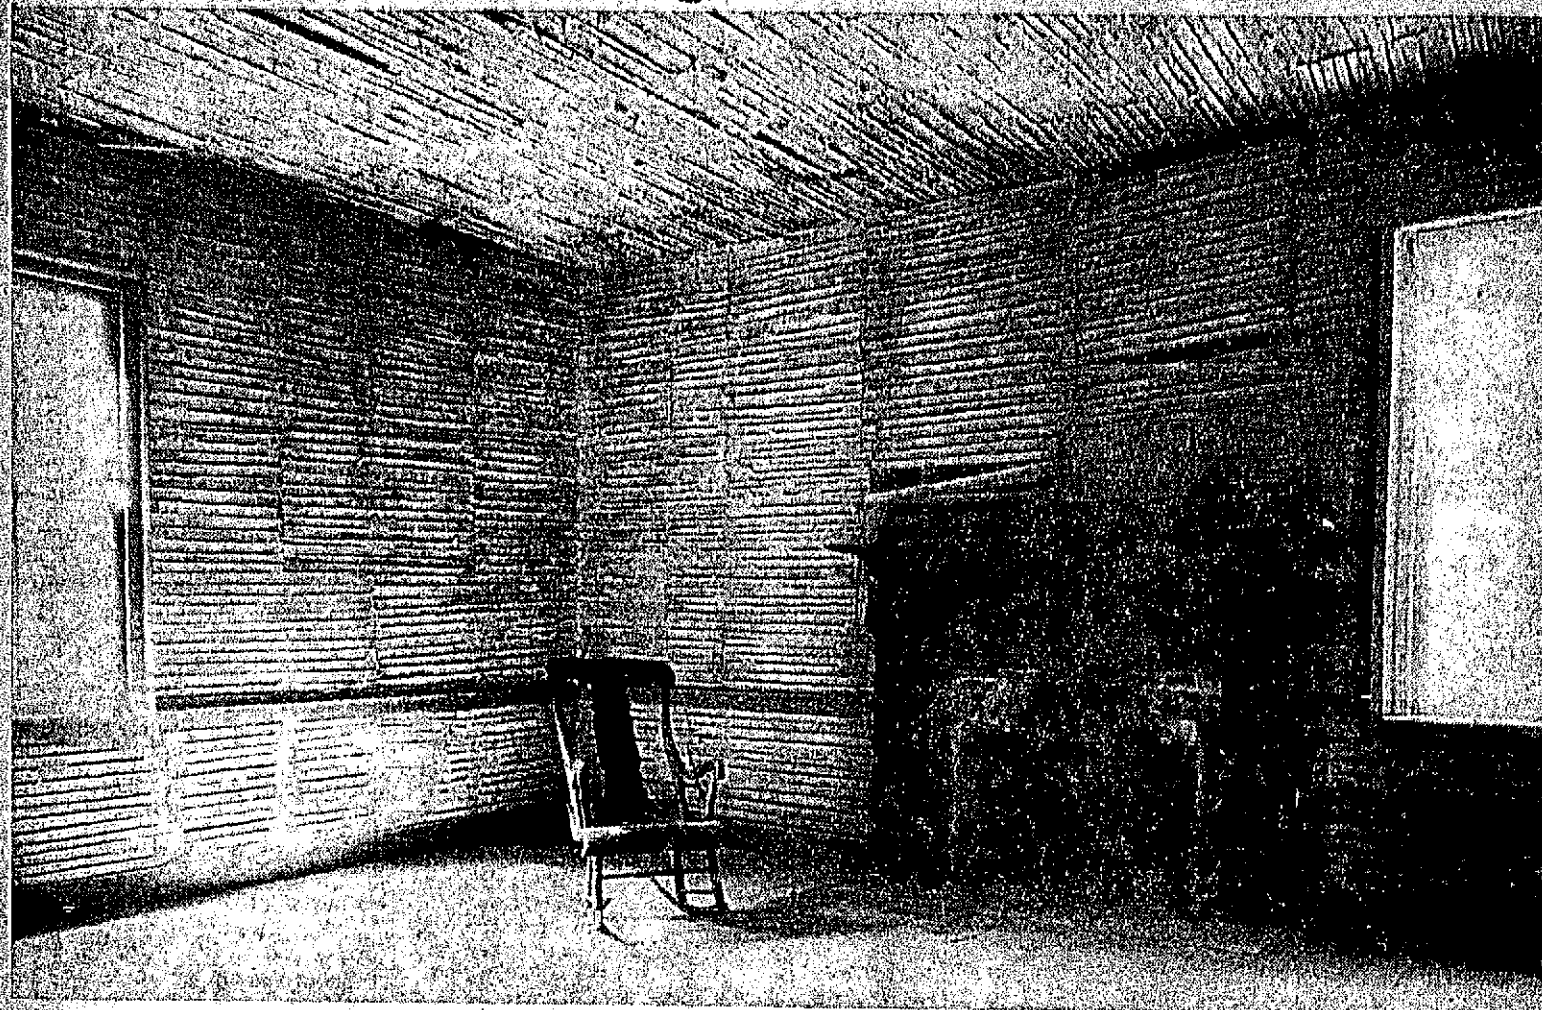

As you have probably heard, a group of Hope Citizens have gotten together, and are working on plans to do a job, that I feel should have been done long ago, and that is to put all the different fund raising drives we have each year into one drive. It will be known as the "United Fund."

There are several real advantages to this project, as some of us can verify that have given through such a fund in other places. We will not only be able to raise more money, but it will take hundreds of hours of work off of many of our busiest citizens. I believe it's a good project.

Call by number. It's twice as fast. SOUTHWESTERN BELL-ARKANSAS

Washington Restoring a Famous Old Landmark

RESTORATION of the old Block-Catts house is now underway at Washington under direction of the Community Accomplishment Club and the Restoration Foundation.

TOP PHOTO shows an upstairs room as it is now. The first floor of the old landmark has already been improved and will be open to the public for the first time at the second annual Homecoming festival on July 4. Plans call for restoration of the entire house and work will start soon on the second floor. The house was built by Abraham Block using slave labor. For the past half century it has been owned by the E. C. Catts family who gave it to the Washington Foundation for restoration in 1958.

Offer Plan for Integration, Atlanta Told

ATLANTA (AP) — A federal judge has ordered the Atlanta board of Education to submit a desegregation plan for the city's public schools within a reasonable time.

The ruling did not set any deadline. Instead U. S. District Judge Frank A. Hooper said he would allow sufficient time for the Georgia Legislature to act upon the plan if necessary.

The next regular session of the legislature will be in January, 1960.

Mayor William B. Hartsfield of Atlanta said the ruling "allows time for both the city and the state to save the public schools."

In Washington, however, Sen. Richard Russell (D-Ga.) said he hoped the Atlanta School Board would "use every means at their command to resist this effort... to enforce an abhorrent alien doctrine on a people who are proud of their belief in the right of the several states to control their local affairs."

In a written decision yesterday, Hooper confirmed a ruling he made on June 5 and said he was compelled to enjoin racial discrimination in the Atlanta public schools.

He directed the school board to signify within a reasonable time to the court the manner in which it proposed to end racial discrimination.

"This court fully realizes the difficult position in which the defendants are herein placed," the court order said. "If they integrate the schools, all state money under existing laws will be cut off and it may be that such funds are necessary for the operation."

"The continued operation, however, with discrimination as in the past will not be tolerated."

In 1901, Jacksonville, Fla., was practically destroyed by fire.

Finds Going Tough With a Famous Dad

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP) — It's tougher to follow in the footsteps of a successful father than to go your way alone says young Joel McCrea. Joel Dee McCrea, known as Jody, is the handsome 6-foot 3 son of veteran actor Joel McCrea and actress Frances Dee. After two years of Army service, Jody is going to Hollywood to start work in a western series, "Wichita Town," which will open on the NBC network this fall. He'll co-star with his father.

"This wasn't the way I planned it at all," the earnest young man explains. "I did not expect to go into television or pictures for a while. I wanted to do a play in New York and some other theater work and then, when I felt secure enough about my own ability, I would be ready to take on television and motion pictures — on my own. I didn't want to ride in on my father's reputation."

"It may be easier for a second-generation actor to get his first break," says Jody, "but almost everything else is harder. People expect more of you. People have less sympathy for you. And you have to have enough sense yourself to avoid things that you're not ready for."

Jody did not even think about acting as a career until he was a student at New Mexico Military Institute. He and his younger brother were brought up on the McCrea's working cattle ranch 30 miles north of Los Angeles.

"We never talked about acting at home—we thought of ourselves as ranchers," he says.

But from high school on Jody became more interested in acting, and before going into the Army

Hubbard Explains His Ineligibility

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Henry L. Hubbard said yesterday he had resigned from the Little Rock Board because he had learned he was ineligible to serve due to a prison record in the 1930s. Hubbard, appointed last week to one of three vacancies created in a May 25 recall election, resigned before the reorganized board's first meeting Monday night.

Hubbard told an informal press conference that he had led an exemplary life since he was released from Tucker Prison Farm in 1940 and had not previously known the prison record made him ineligible to hold any public office. The 45-year-old building contractor said he had never thought it necessary to seek a gubernatorial pardon which would have restored his citizenship rights.

Woman, 27th Child Are Doing Fine

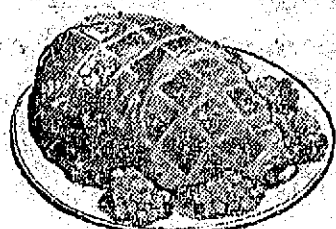

FORT KENT, Maine (AP) — Doctors at Peoples Benevolent Hospital said today that Mrs. Helldore Cyr, 48, and her 27th child are "doing just fine." The child, a seven-pound, five-ounce boy, was born last Sunday, two days after Helldore Cyr, 39, and his wife, Marie, had celebrated their 31st wedding anniversary.

The couple live on a 400-acre farm at Leges, New Brunswick, with 14 children. Five are married and residing elsewhere. Seven of the children have died.

Admits Vet Bill to Cost U. S. Heavily

By JOHN H. AVERILL
WASHINGTON (AP)—The chief author of the House-passed veterans pension bill conceded today that it will cost the government an extra 10 billion dollars in the next 40 years rather than save 12 billion as was claimed.

Rep. Olin E. Teague (D-Tex.) made the concession after Reps. Clara B. Hoffman (R-Mich.) and H. R. Gross (R-Iowa) said the cost of the measure had been camouflaged in Monday's debate. It passed the House 226-34 and was sent to the Senate after limited debate.

"This is nothing but a deception and a fraud on the members of the House," Hoffman said.

Pine Bluff Integration Case Starts

By JOHN S. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—U. S. District Judge Axel J. Beck today denied a defense motion for dismissal of the Dollarway school segregation suit without trial.

The Dollarway School Board contended the suit, by which three Negro children seek to enter an all-white school near Pine Bluff, is premature because the plaintiffs have not exhausted the administrative remedies possible under the 1958 pupil assignment law.

In reply, the plaintiffs said that for them to try to get into the white school under the 1958 law would be a futile gesture.

Their contention is that the law is an anti-integration measure despite its specific disavowal of race as a basis for assignment.

After Beck overruled the dismissal motion, trial of the four-month-old suit got under way before him in U. S. District Court here.

George Howard of Pine Bluff, attorney for the Negro pupils and their parents, was allowed to introduce into the record the 1958 assignment law, which was adopted by popular vote, as well as a series of anti-integration acts of the Arkansas Legislature.

Herschel H. Friday Jr. of Little Rock, attorney for the Dollarway Board, protested unsuccessfully.

In regard to the legislative acts, he said all they could be used for would be to establish the motive of the General Assembly and that they were not relevant to the current litigation.

He said that if legislative motives were to be examined, the case should be heard by a three-judge court.

He formally moved that the case be reassigned to a three-judge panel and was overruled.

The suit, filed early in February, at one time was assigned to Beck and two other judges. It was decided that the constitutional question was not sufficient to justify three judges.

Beck, who now is hearing the case alone, lives at Elk Point, S. D., and customarily holds court in that area. He has been hearing some Arkansas cases on a temporary assignment.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—S. District Judge Axel J. Beck of Elk Point, S. D., today began hearing a suit by which three Negro students seek admittance to an all-white school in the Dollarway district near Pine Bluff.

The case has been pending since early February when it was assigned to a three-judge court. Later, the panel was dissolved and the case assigned to Beck who is on temporary assignment in Arkansas.

Marvin E. Bird of Earle, chairman of the state Board of Education and J. L. (Box) Shaver of Wynne, former lieutenant governor, are among witnesses subpoenaed by attorneys for the Negro students.

Bird and Shaver helped sponsor a 1956 pupil assignment law which the Dollarway board has cited in

Bargains in Fresh Fruit, Vegetables

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bargains in fresh fruits and vegetables give the housewife a chance to buy the more expensive meat cuts in her favorite grocery store this week.

Possibly with that thought in mind, some chains are pushing beef steak, rib roast and top or bottom round roast. A few have chicken or stewing beef.

The situation in pork is reversed, however, with more frequent offerings of bargain specials such as the smaller picnic hams and smoked butts. Pork prices normally go up in the summer as marketings decline, but the increase is expected to be less than usual this year.

Frying chickens and leg of lamb also are offered in several areas. Prices on the former are regularly higher and the latter weaker. Egg prices also are irregular.

Burgeoning local orchards and fields are behind the fruit and vegetable bargains, along with good growing weather in such key areas as California.

Other outstanding buys in vegetables are new cabbage, yellow onions from California, Texas and Arizona, snap beans, spinach, radishes, green onions, yellow or green squash and cucumbers.

Potato prices edge higher, however. Low prices some months ago discouraged planting of large crops, so the supply suffers.

Peaches again head the list of outstanding bargains among fruits, and they seem likely to remain on top (or at the bottom price-wise) for some time.

You can also do very well buying cantaloupes, mangoes, limes, pineapples, bananas and blueberries.

New Fingerprint Identification Plan

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The sheriff's office here has a new identification system it describes as the greatest help to law enforcement since fingerprints.

Sheriff Peter Pitchess said his men now can assemble in about 20 minutes the likeness of a criminal suspect drawn from descriptions of witnesses.

The system is based on a device called Identikit in which the suspect's image emerges by use of overlaying transparent films. Each of the films bears a line drawing of a coded facial characteristic. A total of 62 billion facial combinations are possible by using the 500 transparent films.

The system was developed after 18 years research by the department's chief, Hugh C. McDonald, defense against the suit. The board said the Negro failed to exhaust administrative remedies under the act before they filed suit.

The Negro students now attend the all-Negro Townsend Park school. The Dollarway school board operates only two schools, each with grades 1st through 12, one for whites and one for Negroes.

Braves Dropped Again, Only a Slight Edge Left

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

What's with the Milwaukee Braves? They've lost 10 of their last 15 and have been shut out three times in the last five games. Is this the beginning of the end to their hold on the National League pennant? Or is this just another of those slumps, such as they had and shrugged off while winning the flag the past two years.

Either way, they have only a half-game edge left from what was a bulging 4½-game lead a month ago after dropping a twin night doubleheader at Los Angeles Wednesday night. They were checked on five hits by left-hander Sandy Koufax while losing the opener 10-2, then were blanked on two hits by Danny McDevitt, another lefty, as the Dodgers took the second game 4-0.

That put second place San Francisco, a 7-5 winner over Cincinnati, just one game behind in the "lost" column and within .009 percentage points of the champs. The swoon hoisted the Dodgers into fourth place, one percentage point behind Pittsburgh after the Pirates' 5-2 loss to the Chicago Cubs. Both the Dodgers and Bucs are only 2½ games from the top.

St. Louis whipped Philadelphia 10-4 in the other NL game. They've lost behind their best pitchers in this present skid, with Lew Burdette dropping two, Bob Rush three and Bob Buhl one. In Wednesday night's opener, southpaw ace Warren Spahn failed to finish a five-run first inning for his third defeat in his last four decisions.

The Braves, getting a first game home run from Johnny Logan against Koufax (3-1), who gained his first complete game while beating Milwaukee a second time this year, had only a pair of singles by Hank Aaron in the nightcap. McDevitt (5-6), walked three, struck out two.

Los Angeles broke through a two-hit shutout by Joey Jay (2-5) in the seventh of a bases-loaded walk and an infield out, then added two in the eighth off Bob Trombridge on a single by Don Demeter and Gil Hodges' double.

The Giants broke a 2-2 tie with five runs in the sixth against Orlando Pena (3-5) on three singles, one a two-run smack by Willie Kirkland, three walks and an error.

Cal Neuman, who singled and scored the tying run in the seventh for the Cubs, hit a three-run, inside-the-park homer in the eighth to beat Pirate southpaw Harvey Haddix (4-5), who has lost four to Chicago. Bill Henry (5-3) won it.

College Baseball Finals Tonight

OMAHA (AP) — Fresno State Oklahoma State will meet in a winner-take-all NCAA college baseball world series game tonight with the winner's battle with Arizona for the championship.

The three teams have followed the surprise win of Fresno State over Arizona, 2-0, Tuesday night and Oklahoma State's 4-3 elimination of Penn State. Arizona won today's bye in a drawing and remains the favorite because of the day of rest.

Baseball Class Offered Here 3 Days a Week

The Parks and Recreation Department is planning to sponsor baseball classes for Doctor's League, Little League and Pony League baseball players at K-Park for the remainder of the season if enough interest is shown.

The classes will be held three days a week and each session will run for a two week period. Each session will consist of players of comparable age groups.

Players will be taught the fundamentals of hitting, fielding, base running, etc. by film and by actual practice.

Classes will be taught by Wayne Johnson, local baseball player, who has had professional baseball experience. There will be a charge to each boy participating to cover cost of equipment and instruction.

Newcombe Credits His Trainer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Cincinnati's big Don Newcombe who continued his spectacular comeback Tuesday night by beating San Francisco 2-1, credits a trainer for his sixth straight triumph.

The 32-year-old who started in Brooklyn, lost six straight for the Dodgers in Los Angeles last year before being traded to the Redlegs.

He arrived there with a sore right arm and gives full credit for his comeback to Cincinnati trainer Wayne Anderson.

"He takes better care of my arm than he does his own children," declared the 240-pound Newcombe who won 27 games with the Dodgers in 1956 before his throwing arm started going bad.

The Cards made it 9 out of 11 with Ray Jablonski and Bill White each driving in three runs. A five-run fifth put it away against reliever Humberto Robinson (1-1) while lefty Marshall Bridges held the Phils to five hits and one run for a winning, 5-1, 3-inning relief job in his major league debut.

Orioles Down Tigers, Yanks Lick White Sox

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Young Milt Pappas has his first major league shutout, and he couldn't have picked a better time to nail it.

The big Baltimore right-hander, 20, dropped Detroit's Tigers 4-0 with a two-hitter Wednesday night and halted the Orioles' skid in the American League race.

Pappas, signed two years ago off the Detroit sandlots, struck out six and didn't walk a man. He had a perfect game going until Lew Burdette got the first of the Tigers' two singles with two out in the fifth inning. The other hit, in the sixth, was by Jim Bunning, who allowed only four Baltimore hits and had a perfect game for 2-3 innings. But he lost for the third time in his last four decisions.

Pappas retired the last 11 men in a row while gaining a 6-3 record.

That left the fourth-place Birds, who have lost five of seven since tying for first last week, 3 games behind Cleveland's league-leading Indians, whose game at Boston was postponed because of cold weather. The loss barred the Tigers, who had won three straight, from a second place tie with the Chicago White Sox, beat on 7-3 at New York. Washington escaped a last-place tie with Boston by beating Kansas City 7-2.

The Orioles, who had lost three straight, broke through Bunning's perfect spell when Gus Triandos and Chico Carrasquel hit solo home runs in the fifth inning. A single by Ed Piliarek Gene Woodling's triple, and an error produced the other two Oriole runs in the seventh.

The fifth place Yankees returned to .500 with their second straight over the White Sox. Mickey Mantle's 14th homer, a two-run wallop into the third deck in right field at Yankee Stadium, capped a wrap-up, five-run second inning against loser Ray Moore (1-5).

Bob Turley (8-7) made it six straight over the White Sox since August, 1956, but needed Ryne Duren's relief over the last 3-2-3 innings.

Turley, who has been suspected of having a "dead arm" by Manager Casey Stengel, struck out six in the first two innings but then tired quickly.

Camilo Pascual (5-7), who had lost three in a row and hadn't won since May 27 despite five consecutive complete games, handed the A's their fourth consecutive loss with an eight-inning fanned eight and was backed by two-run homers from Rookie Bob Allison and Reno Bertoia. It boosted the Senators' AL leading total to 80. Ned Garver (5-5) lost it.

Akins Will Try Comeback Trail

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Virgil Akins, who used to be welterweight champion, his what he hopes will be the comeback trail tonight against undefeated Luis Rodriguez, the Cuban welter champion. Akins is 7-5 favorite to stop the speedy Rodriguez in their nationally televised 10-round fight in the Miami Beach exhibition hall.

Akins boasts a 49-22-4 record and claims he had a letdown after winning the title from Miami Beach's Vince Martinez last June. He lost the crown to Don Jordan and failed to regain it in a return bout.

Rodriguez scored seven knockouts in 21 fights, including one decision contest.

Tomato Soup Sets a Celebrity Table

MUSTER up the crowd — and gather round the chafing dish, for there's nothing dull about these meatballs!

CELEBRITY MEATBALLS are prepared with America's number 1 favorite soup, and a big leader as a cooking ingredient. Canned condensed tomato soup. A recent survey reveals that this soup leads the way on family tables. It's used time and time again as a cooking ingredient, too. No wonder, with its many merits in flavor, color and delightful eating.

For your next gathering, or family meal, prepare these meatballs, perfectly seasoned with horseradish, mustard, and Worcestershire sauce, then tenderly simmered in a wonderful canned condensed tomato soup.

Serve them with noodles or rice, a molded salad, and brownies, a la mode for dessert. It's a celebrity table, and menu.

Celebrity Meatballs

- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed tomato soup
- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 3 tablespoons finely chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
- 1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
- 1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1/2 cup water

Combine 1/4 cup soup with beef, egg, onion, crumbs, horseradish, mustard, and Worcestershire sauce. Shape into balls about 1-inch in diameter. In skillet, brown meatballs in shortening. Stir in remaining soup and water. Cover; simmer about 35 to 40 minutes. Stir now and then. Makes 4 servings.

New York Area Is Fighting Rats

DANBURY, N.Y. (AP) This northern New York community is fighting an invasion of rats, some of them described as being big as cats.

Mayor William Danhue said the rats were coming from a dump used by Clinton State Prison.

The top of the dump is covered with so many rats it appears like it's moving, he said, adding it looked like there were millions of them.

The mayor said the rats apparently had become hungry since the prison stopped putting raw garbage on the dump. The rats now are ranging through the village in search of food.

The mayor said prison authorities had been cooperative and the state had an exterminator at the dump Monday.

More Women Buying Stocks Nowadays

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Those women you see in stockbrokers' boardrooms in increasing numbers these days aren't just resting their feet.

They're buying stocks in ever greater volume. In the list of Americans who have bought their first share of stock in the last three years, housewives lead all the rest. Women shareholders have outnumbered men for some time. But they have increased their lead since 1956.

Some four million women classifying themselves as housewives now own stocks, the biggest single group in the New York Stock Exchange's 1959 census of shareholders.

This shows that women now are 52.5 per cent of all adult shareholders, compared with 51.4 per cent in 1956 when the last census was taken. Altogether there are 12,490,000 men and women who have at least one share.

And among the new comers to corporate stockholder lists since 1956 women outnumber men by 53.3 per cent to 43.7 per cent.

Altogether there are 8,347,000 women shareholders in the land, the stock exchange estimates in its survey, or about 11.5 per cent of the nation's adult female population. Three years ago 4,260,000 women held stock, or 8.1 per cent of their total number.

Of all women shareholders, 1,275,000 are housewives who have jobs outside the home.

The increase in working housewives could be one reason that women are more and more involved in the stock market. Women have more money nowadays to spend—and to invest.

Another could be that women live intimately with inflation. As handlers of the family spending money they know what has happened to their bills, and to the purchasing power of their dollar. Many may look on stocks as a good hedge against this.

Capital gains through rising stock prices appeal to them, too, as compared to fixed interest returns on other investments.

Brokers add that their women customers are active bargain seekers — although finding bargains in stocks has become harder to do in a soaring bull market.

While the career girls and the other women employed in business are taking to the stock market too, it's the housewife who is the shining light in the boardroom these days. They now total one third of all the shareholders in the land. Their numbers have increased by 1,170,000 since 1956.

Next largest groups of shareholders and sales. There are many teachers, and officials, professional and semiprofessional; and clerical and sales. There are many women among each of these three occupational groups.

Spa Clearing Area for Dog Track

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Clearing of a 40-acre tract for a dog track here begins today. Directors of the Hot Springs Kennel Club, Inc., announced this at a meeting last night.

The track will cost an estimated $1,250,000.

Officers and directors of the club were elected Saturday at a stockholders' meeting. Milan Creighton remained as president.

In an apparent wrangle over control, Creighton obtained a temporary order from Chancellor Sam W. Garratt Saturday forbidding the holding of a directors' meeting, until after a "stockholders' meeting."

Sheriff Leonard Ellis called the fires "definitely arson" and said an attempt was made to burn a third house.

Bob Ward of Little Rock, of the fire marshal's office of the State Police, joined in the probe. The house that was destroyed was owned by L. B. Beale, who estimated his loss at $5,500. A bed was set afire in a cabin owned by Adrian Finley of Camden, but neighbors extinguished the flames. Ellis said a pan of grease was placed in a burning oven in a house owned by George Chenault of Hot Springs, and the gas jets turned on but no lit. This was discovered before an explosion occurred.

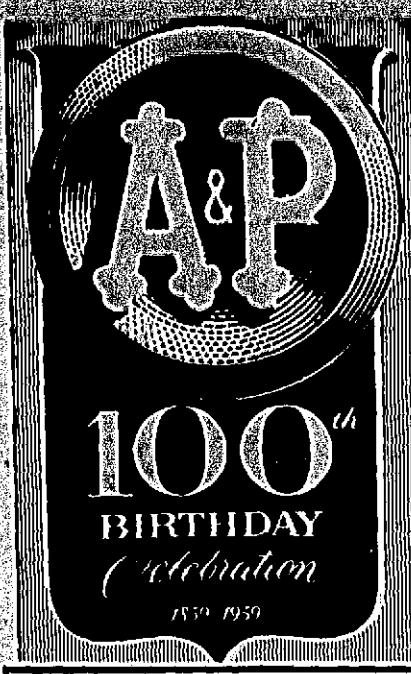

Ellis said he knew of no motive for the arson.

Cathy Crosby Hurt in Auto Accident

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Cathy Crosby, 18-year-old daughter of Bob Crosby and niece of Bing, was injured early today in an auto collision in West Los Angeles. "She wasn't seriously hurt," her father said. "At least they said that so far, it just looks like bruises."

"She'll be coming home as soon as they get through taking the X-rays."

Miss Crosby, who is also a singer, has an apartment of her own. "But she'll come home to stay with us for now," said Bob. She was alone in her car when it collided with another auto on a residential street.

Shortcake And Hot Coffee For Strawberry Festivities

WHAT could be more fun than an old-fashioned Strawberry Festival? On a warm, early-summer weekend, when the first roses are budding, the church lawn is spread with long tables bedecked with fresh, sweet strawberries, served in delicious ways. And the most popular table of all is the one where homemade strawberry shortcake and fragrant hot coffee are served.

One of the very best shortcake recipes to come along is easily adapted to the community festival or the Sunday dinner at home. The light-textured biscuits are quickly made from a biscuit mix and filled with sweetened strawberries while they're still hot from the oven. After each portion is generously smothered in whipped cream, there's only one thing left to do. Pour a cup of steaming coffee to go with each serving of luscious shortcake. After all, hot coffee is just as much a part of the tradition as the strawberry itself.

Strawberry Festival Shortcake
1 cup biscuit mix
1/2 cup butter or margarine
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup light cream (about 1/2 pint)
1/2 cup sweetened strawberries
Whipped cream
Combine biscuit mix and sugar. Cut in butter or margarine. Combine beaten eggs and light cream and stir in with a fork. (Add more cream if dough is not soft enough). Roll out 1/4 inch thick on lightly floured board. Cut with 2-inch round cutter. If a glazed top is desired, brush with slightly beaten egg yolk and sprinkle with a little sugar. Bake in hot oven, 450° F., 12 to 15 minutes. Split and butter while hot. Put together with sliced sweetened strawberries. Top with additional strawberries and whipped cream. Makes 10 to 12 individual shortcakes.

College Teachers in N. Y. Get Raises

NEW YORK (AP) — The Board of Education Monday night voted raises for the 2,600 faculty members of New York City's five municipal colleges. Maximum salaries of full and associate professors, not $15,400 and $10,900 a year respectively, went up 600. Assistant professors, now getting a top rate of $9,500, will get 400 more. Instructors, who receive $8,400 maximum, will get 300 more.

Albright Posted Bond Voluntarily

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gus Albright, publicist for the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, said he had voluntarily posted a $14,300 bond ordered forfeited yesterday when he failed to appear in Hot Springs Municipal Court for allegedly exceeding the limit on white bass.

Albright said he registered 15 — the legal limit — of the 26 bass he caught at Lake Hamilton during a fishing derby. He said he didn't see anything wrong since he was fishing with another man who caught three, and it was customary to consider the total catch against the total allowable, which would be 30 bass for two anglers.

Albright said he gave his excess fish to a game warden and explained what had happened. He said when a question arose, however, he posted the bond "just for the record."

Nine Children Die in S. Korea Blast

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Nine children 2 to 18 years old were killed Monday when an unidentified explosive they were tinkering with went off at Changnyung.

Kathie whirled around to face this angry eyes. "Sam! For heaven's sake, I was only going to suggest that your grandfather might be able to help us."

"With what?" he said shortly. "Alex has discovered the man my Uncle Job was supposed to have murdered was... E.H. in O.A.S. Redd, the man who sold your grandfather his property and apparently gave my great-uncle a deed to it, too."

Sam's anger was dissipated in quick interest. "So that's it?"

"What do you mean?"

"Well, that could explain it, couldn't it? Old Phineas tried to sell your great-uncle property he no longer owned. And when your great-uncle discovered how he was trying to cheat him, he killed him."

Kathie's mouth fell open. "Do you think so?" she asked, her heart sinking.

Sam was saying, "It might be Grandfather could help us," although I'm sure he told the authorities everything he could at the time, I've heard him speak of that old affair."

I've got to know, she thought, I don't care if it kills me, I've got to know once and for all whether I can trust Alex or not. And the only way I can find out is to trust him.

"Alex," she spoke with a rush. "I'll do it. I'll get the deed for you."

No one had heard Leilani enter. Now she spoke.

"Get out of my house!"

Kathie whirled around in surprise. Leilani was looking straight at her, hate distorting her lovely face. "Leilani!" she gasped. "What?"

"I can't bear the sight of you any longer," Leilani cried. "Alex is in love with you. I can see it in the way he looks at you. And you love her, too don't you? Sam, you've taken everything I want. Kathie, you sent my mother to her death. Get out of here before I kill you!"

Alex joined her after breakfast. "Are you all packed?" he asked. And when she nodded, he said, "Good. A taxi's coming for us in a few minutes."

Her head lifted. "Are you going back to Honolulu?"

"Have to," he replied briefly.

attacking his scrambled eggs in a businesslike manner.

"But what about Leilani?" Kathie asked.

"Sam's staying. The relatives are taking over anyway. We'd just be underfoot from now on."

She did not see either Leilani or Sam again before she and Alex left. Alex hurried her and her luggage into the taxi, and they made it to the airport with only minutes to spare.

As the plane rose, circling, Kathie looked down at the island of Hawaii through a mist of tears, wondering if she would ever see its gardenlike beauty again.

Alex put his hand over hers and clasped it tightly. "I'm sorry,"

Ruthie said. "This has been a strange alarm to the island for you, hasn't it?"

"I'm sorry I came," Kathie said, her voice bitter.

"You mustn't blame yourself," Kathie said.

"The devil is in the deed, Alex," she said. "I don't want anything more to do with it. Sam's grand old uncle finally let him have it. He has the money and power to fight the evil in it."

Alex interrupted her abruptly. "Kathie, are you going to marry Sam?"

Her eyes flew wide. She hesitated. "Then 'Why, Alex?'"

"I know he wants to marry you," he paused, then added,

Leilani is in love with him, you know."

"With Sam?" Kathie cried.

"Yes, he looked amused. "Don't you know why she is so jealous of you?"

"Could he be so blind?" she said. "Leilani is in love with you, Alex."

"Leilani and I have been like brother and sister all our lives," he said slowly. "What she feels for me isn't love."

He was silent for a long time, and Kathie thought despondently, But you love her, Alex.

"When he spoke again, he said, "Kathie, don't turn over your deed to Mr. Ward until I've had a crack at it. Please."

"I've already said I would let

Leilani drop Alex had described to her. She had given her a stamp, and now she glared at the envelope. Then she slipped the envelope into the mail drop before leaving the building.

Then Kathie started to leave the bank, and as she did so, she remembered the instructions seemed overcautious to her, but nevertheless, following them, she entered the bank, went down stairs to the vault, where she removed the deed from her bag and sealed it in a large brown envelope, which she addressed to Alex. A postoffice box number she had given her, and she carefully thought out what she was to do.

Unhappily again, she found the
